

REFERENCES

1. Climatic Survey of Region 10 – Port Phillip, Victoria. Bureau of Meteorology 1968
2. Emerson, W. W. 1967. “A classification of Soil aggregates based on their Coherence in Water”. Aust. Journal of Soil Research 5.
3. Food and agriculture organization 1973. “Soil Survey Interpretation for Engineering Purposes”. Soil Bulletin 19, Food and agricultural organization of the United Nations. Rome.
4. Geology of the Melbourne District, Victoria. Department of Mines, Victoria. Bulletin No. 59, 1967.
5. Marshall, T. J. 1947. C.S.I.R. Bulletin No. 224. “Mechanical Composition of Soil in Relation to Field Description of Texture”.
6. Northcote, K. H. 1974 4th Ed. A Factual Key for the Recognition of Australian Soils. Rellim Technical Publications, Glenside, S.A.
7. Rowan, J. N. (1970). “Integrated Surveys of Land”. (Unpublished Report).
8. Soil Conservation Authority, 1975. “Soil Classification for Land Systems Map of Victoria”. (Unpublished Report).
9. Soil Conservation Authority, 1976. “Upper Yarra Valley and Dandenong Ranges Land Management and Stream Environment Study, Volume 3, A Study of the Land”.
10. United States Department of Agriculture, 1975. “Soil Survey Manual”. U.S. Department of Agriculture 5th Draft.
11. Specht, R. L. 1970. “The Australian Environment”. 4th Ed. G. W. Leeper, (C.S.I.R.O. Aust. & Melb. University Press).
12. Costermans, L. F. 1973. “Trees of Victoria.” Renwick, Pride, Melbourne.
13. Melbourne & Metropolitan Board of Works. Vegetation Map of the Proposed Yarra Valley Park 1976 (Unpublished Report).