

Developing willow management priorities

from the local to the national level

Supported by the State Government of Victoria

Department of Primary Industries

Published by the Department of Primary Industries, Victoria, June 2008.

© The State of Victoria, Department of Primary Industries, 2008.

This material may be reproduced in whole or in part, provided the meaning is unchanged and the source is acknowledged.

Authorised by: Victorian Government, 1 Spring Street, Melbourne, Victoria, 3000.

ISBN 978-1-74217-080-0

Disclaimer: The advice provided in this publication is intended as a source of information only. This publication may be of assistance to you but the State of Victoria and its employees do not guarantee that the publication is without flaw of any kind or is wholly appropriate for your particular purposes and therefore disclaims all liability for any error, loss or other consequence which may arise from you relying on any information in this publication.

This publication should be cited as:

Steel, J. Holland Clift, S. & Snell, K. (2008). Developing willow management priorities from the local to the national level. Department of Primary Industries, Victoria.

The project was completed on behalf of the National Willows Taskforce as part of the Weeds of National Significance Program.

For further information on the National Willows Program go to www.weeds.org.au/WoNS/willows or contact the National Willows Coordinator.

Developing willow management priorities from the local to the national level

Weeds of National Significance

June 2008

This project was sponsored by the Australian Government Department of Environment, Water, Heritage and the Arts, Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry and the Victorian Department of Primary Industries.